About DTS

History

The Delaware Theological Seminary was founded in January 2007 by two visionaries, Rev. William Sanford Jr. and Rev. Ronald Jackson, as they travelled from Delaware to Baltimore to attend the Maryland Theological Seminary. They envisioned planting a seminary in Delaware, where Delaware Christians seeking a sound Christian education could come to sharpen their theological skills.

DTS began having classes in Philadelphia, the City of Brotherly Love, in September of 2009 at the invitation of Pastor Stephan Jarrett of True Christian Fellowship, an unexpected open door, extending the scope of the vision.

NON-DISCRIMINATORY POLICY

Delaware Theological Seminary does not discriminate based on race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, handicap, or veteran status in providing education, employment opportunities, or benefits.

OUR PURSUIT

Our goal is spiritual, as well as, academic excellence.

RIGHTS RESERVED

Message from the President

The purpose of our seminary is to provide opportunities for Biblical and Educational training. Our courses are designed to enable servants of Jesus Christ to prepare and fulfill God's call on their lives. Each student, through attending classroom and their own self-study, can acquire the knowledge and spiritual insights required for most ministries that our Lord would call you to.

If you are ready to answer the clarion call of God on your life, the Delaware theological Seminary is ready to help. We have an open registration policy in effect now. We offer classes, which will prepare you for your ministry assignments and personal enrichment. We have degree completion courses available that extends from bachelors to doctoral degree programs.

Delaware Theological Seminary is an extension of the Baltimore Maryland and the Eastern Theological Seminary, out of Lynchburg Virginia. We have two campuses located in Wilmington Delaware and Philadelphia.

Every Christian should be able to give an answer to every individual for the reason for the hope that is within them, and it should be done with humility and reverence to Almighty God.

Rev. Dr. Wm. Sanford Jr. B.A.Theol, M.Rel. Ed., M.Div., D.Div.

MISSION STATEMENT

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVE

Delaware Theological Seminary is an educational Institution serving the Lord and His Church. Its mission is to prepare men and women for Ministry and Christian service. DTS provides a balanced curriculum of study that is non-denominational in content, and adheres strictly to the doctrines of the Christian faith. The seminary undertakes this task as a training partner with the Church, so that what is learned in the classroom may be complemented by the spiritual nature and the exercise of ministry available in the Church.

Delaware Theological Seminary's mission arises out of God's redemptive work in this world, affected in Jesus Christ, understood through the Biblical Word, and mediated by the Holy Spirit. As a Theological Seminary, it provides learning resources and trainings through which men and women may acquire knowledge, gain skills, and develop attitudes needed in Christian Ministry. Its mission accordingly, is to serve the Church in the following ways:

1. To encourage students to become knowledgeable of God's inerrant Word, competent in its interpretation, proclamation, and application in the contemporary world.
2. To maintain academic excellence in the highest tradition of Christian scholarship in the teaching of the Biblical, historical, and theological disciplines.
3. To train and encourage students, in cooperation with the Church, to become skilled in ministry.
4. To work with Churches towards the maturing of students, so that their experimental knowledge of God in Christ is evidenced in their character, outlook, conduct, relationship, and involvement in society.

To provide leadership and educational resources for shaping and effective evangelical presence in the Church and society...(cont.)

6. To develop in students, a vision for God's redemptive work throughout the world, and to formulate strategies which will lead to effective mission, evangelism, and discipleship

Doctorial Statement

We believe that the Bible, in its original manuscripts, is the inspired, inerrant Word of God, as given by the Holy Spirit. We believe that it is the final authority for faith and practice. We believe in the present ministry and baptism of the Holy Spirit, by who's indwelling, the Christian is enabled to live a Godly life. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the unsaved; those that are saved into the resurrection of life and those that are unsaved into the resurrection of damnation. Acts 1:8 We believe that the lost and sinful man must be saved, and that man's only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Ephesians 1:7 We believe in the spiritual unity of believers, in our Lord Jesus Christ. There is one body, one faith and one baptism. Ephesians 4:5 We believe in the sanctity of marriage, and it's a divine institution ordained by God between a man and woman. Matthew 19:5 All Christian should seek to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. To make the will of Jesus Christ supreme in our lives and human society. Christians should appose racism, every form of greed, selfishness and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, fornication, lesbianism and homosexuality. We should work to provide for the orphaned and the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should contend for the sanctity of all human life, from conception to natural death. Romans 12:1,2 We believe in, and practice the holy ordinance of water baptism, which signifies the believer's death, burial, and resurrection into new life with Christ Jesus, and the regular celebration of Holy Communion as commanded by our Lord. Acts 10:48, Luke 22:19

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

I greet you in the wonderful name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! It is a wonderful thing in the Lord when one considers furthering his/her spiritual education. Through the Holy Spirit inspiring the Apostle, Paul, we get, 'Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of God' 2 Tim. 2:15.

We encourage you to choose Delaware Theological Seminary as your place of preparation for the ministry which the Lord has/will call you to. The professors understand the needs of the local church, and will help sharpen your theological abilities, so that you will be a blessing to your church and the Body of Christ at large.

God bless and guide you, see you in class!

Yours in Christ Jesus the Lord,

Rev. Dr. Ronald L. Jackson B.A.Theol, M.Rel. Ed., M.Div., D.Div.

Requirements for Degrees

Associate of Theology – 60 Semester Hours

This associate degree program is designed so that the layperson may build a progressive academic program balanced in content and ministry application.

Bachelor of Theology – 120 Semester Hours

It is a degree program focused on the Word of God, with an emphasis in Biblical doctrine and theology.

Bachelor of Religious Education – 120 Hours

The Bachelor of religious Education degree program is a course of study designed for individuals desiring to enter, or are already in a leadership role of the Bible-centered ministry.

Master of Religious Education – 45 Semester Hours

The Master of Religious Education degree is a graduate level professional degree for those seeking to serve in an educational ministry in a Church or related agency, or institution. This course of study seeks to maximize the students' level of competency in a Church related educational ministry. Students who progress through the program will grow in their ability to formulate a Biblical philosophy of education, to understand the basic principles of teaching and learning situations, and to develop the specific competencies which are necessary for teaching, organizing, and administering programs, and for effective leadership in a variety of situations.

Master of Divinity – 90 Semester Hours The master of Divinity Program is designed primarily for those who expect to enter the formal ministry; either the pastorate or an organization associated with the work of the local Church, individual Christians, and the sharing of the Gospel with all people in accord with the Biblical mandate. (continued)

A strong interest in the total implication of the Gospel for society pervades the program.

Doctor of Ministry – The quality and success of the Christian Ministry are very often determined by the Ministers' ability to communicate in oral and written fashion. It is the purpose of the DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM to enhance the spiritual gifts and abilities of Christian leaders presently serving in the Ministry. Through developing their writing, speaking, and administrative skills, Delaware Theological Seminary seeks to train Ministers for effective leadership.

The DOCTOR OF MINISTRY is a professional degree designed for those engaged in the Pastoral Ministry or other areas of Christian service. Those seeking admission to the DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM would have completed the M. Div. or its equivalent. They will be able to use the linguistic, critical, and exegetical tools requisite for interpreting the Scriptures.

To earn the DOCTOR OF MINISTRY DEGREE, the student must complete 36 credit hours beyond the Masters' level, including a Doctoral Dissertation.

The student will choose a topic of his/her choice

Admission Information

ADMISSION POLICIES

Application for admission to Delaware Theological seminary will be considered without regard to race, religious affiliation, color, national or ethnic origin. The seminary seeks for students who are committed to Christ, and whose lives demonstrate consistency with the teachings of the Bible. It is expected that such students will be emotionally, as well as, spiritually suited for Christian service, and intellectually capable of rigorous academic discipline. The prospective student is assessed according to his/her academic background and personal testimony for the Lord Jesus Christ. In considering applications, the Admission Committee reviews the prospective students' complete record, recommendations, and personal information. If the student meets the required standard, he/she is admitted to DTS and remains until he/she completes his/her program or becomes inactive.

Students who are admitted are expected to abide by the rules and regulations set forth by the Seminary, and adhere to the "STANDARDS OF CONDUCT."

Applications must be made on the Official Form, furnished by the Office of Admissions. When the necessary information and fees have been received, action will be taken on the application by the Admission Committee
